Medieval Illuminated Manuscript Page - Holy Communion

CA$16 / week

Print, silver frame.

Intricate medieval illustration with Latin text, religious figures, and a church background. The rubric at the top tells us that the prayers that follow are to be said before and after Communion. Therefore, the artist portrayed a priest administering the sacrament to a man in a fur-trimmed cloak, presumably the owner of the manuscript. The man, whose family arms appear on the adjacent leaf, appears again in the margin, following the priest, choir, and acolytes in procession, probably representing the feast of Corpus Christi.
