Weekender Bag - Men's Canvas Hard-Wearing Carryall

CA$15 / week

Weekender Bag

This weekender is built from thick, capable canvas, with a heavy-duty, reinforced frame. The style of this bag was originally used by stonemasons to haul their tools to construction sites hence the name, Line of Trade. The interior pocket now offers enough space to stash a laptop, keeping it safe by suspending it above the bottom of the bag. The handles and buckles are cut from thick, quality leather, and a seatbelt-style nylon webbing shoulder strap clips onto reinforced, metal D-rings. It all lends extra durability and a put-together vibe to an heirloom-level bag you'll be proud to pass on one day.

- Durable cotton canvas
- Metal hardware and reinforced frame
- Thick leather handles
- Removable nylon webbing shoulder strap
- Interior pocket fits up to a 15" laptop for slimmer models, 13" for bulkier ones
