Assault Rifle - Howa Type 64 - Hard Rubber

CA$45 / week

Replica of Howa Type 64 Rifle.

The Howa Type 64 Battle Rifle (64式歩兵小銃 Roku-yon-shiki-jidou-shoujuu), is a Japanese battle rifle used exclusively by the Japan Self-Defense Forces and the Japanese Coast Guard.

Roughly a decade after the creation of the Japanese Self Defense Forces, the Defense Agency decided to make a domestically designed and manufactured main battle rifle to replace the aging M1 Garand rifles that had been given to them by the United States.
