The Rocket R58 Cinquantotto Coffee Machine is a dual boiler espresso machine in the prestigious and popular Giotto range, packed with features and a new modern design.

Cinquantotto, meaning 58, is the latest version of the popular R58 coffee machine. Dual boilers operate independently to create unprecedented temperature stability for the coffee boiler, as well as increased levels of steam pressure and hot water supply from the service boiler. Improved temperature and pressure stability allow the barista to produce superior espresso.
