Dracaena Marginata Braided 3 Gallon

Contact for pricing

Available for Purchase Only

This Marginata Braided, otherwise known as Madagascar Dragon Tree, is popular among indoor and outdoor plant lovers. Its spiky leaves form round tufts atop long, woody stems, and its unique appearance and low-care nature make it a designer favorite for private and commercial spaces alike. Native to Africa, Southern Asia, and parts of Northern Australia, these hardy plants have adapted to cooler climates, so you can find them adorning hotels, offices, and businesses all around the world.
