Chinese Fan Palm 8-10'

Contact for pricing

This is a Live Plant rental item
There are many reasons to love the graceful drooping fronds of the Chinese Fan Palm. They have a wide-spreading crown, with drooping, weeping fronds that will stay low to the ground when young and provide a canopy of shade as they mature! It's also known as the Fountain Palm because of the way the frond's tips create a falling, fountain-like appearance.
