Film Slate / Clapboard

Contact for pricing

This traditional film slate, also known as a clapperboard, features a black and white clapper stick with a writable surface for recording essential scene information. Ideal for any production, it adds authenticity to movie or TV sets depicting filmmaking scenes or behind-the-scenes environments. Suitable for use on sets set from the 1980s to the present day, this item is essential for both historical and modern film production depictions.
