Twin Sized Mattress

Contact for pricing

Twin-size plaid mattress. This well-worn mattresses are the kind you'd find in "somebody's attic," the one you "sleep on your side" on while the world falls apart — a true monument to bad decisions, late nights, and "the lions living in the wiry broke down frames of my friends' bodies." It's the kind of mattress that you'll never graduate up in size to add another, and the kind where "my nightmares will have nightmares every night." Ideal for dorm rooms, orphanages, halfway houses, or any film or TV set where someone's about to "try to find a way to get out of their head."
