NOTE: The following prop is a "Non-Gun". Please see our glossary for an explanation of what a Non-Gun is and how they are implemented.

One of the most popular and versatile handguns in our inventory, the Glock 19 is used by virtually everyone. While it was first produced in 1988 for the military and law enforcement communities, police forces, swat teams, government operatives, criminals, and civilians alike have all armed themselves with this reliable and accurate weapon. The Glock 19 is essentially a reduced-size Glock 17. As such, many of the parts of the Glock 19 are interchangeable with the Glock 17. The Glock 19 uses a 15-round magazine and is currently one of the official side arms used by the NYPD as well as numerous government agencies around the world.
