American-Made Maple Bench with Woven Seat by Tom Ghilarducci

$330 / week

An elegantly crafted bench by Portland, OR-based furniture designer and fabricator. Ghilarducci is a contemporary designer, though this is an older design dating, according to a handwritten notation beneath the bench seat, to 2001. The Scandinavian and Shaker-influenced design has four tapered legs and a bench seat framed by two curved and beveled handles. The seat is woven with Knoll khaki green heavy cotton webbing. Condition: Excellent restored condition; professionally refinished. Webbing has been rewoven according to original design with heavy-duty cotton webbing produced by Knoll. Dimensions: 41.5" width x 19" depth x 18" height; seat height is 15"
