Ray + Charles Eames Time Life Lobby Chair in Cognac Leather

$450 / week

A legendary office design by Ray and Charles Eames for the three modernist lobbies of the new Time Life Building in Manhattan, the Time Life Lobby chair has a polished aluminum frame and segmented, tufted cushions in leather upholstery. Leather armrests sit neatly on the aerodynamic curves of the metal frame, which is supported by a four-star base. Slightly wider than the Time Life Executive Chair, the lobby version sits on plastic glides, though casters are available as well if this option is preferred. Unlike the narrower executive version, the lobby chair is no longer produced by Herman Miller. This example has the original cognac leather upholstery with a Herman Miller paper label on the underside. Condition: Excellent vintage condition; professionally cleaned and polished. Dimensions: 28.5" width x 28" depth x 30" height; seat height is 16" and arm height is 23"
