M16 Prop Gun, Replica Gun

Contact for pricing

These M16-A1 replica prop guns have moving parts, and they are non-firing. Ideal for film props. They can be cocked, and cycled, and they make a metal "clack" like a real weapon, the trigger can be pulled and clicked, the magazine can be removed and snapped back in. We also have a few solid resin replicas with no moving parts, just in case you need a few more M16's. This is a high-quality non-firing replica that looks like the real thing. One week rental is $95. The refundable deposit is $295 ea. You get your deposit back when you return it on-time in the same good condition.
